Aaron, his wife Jennifer, and their 3 children Lane, Brady, and Samantha Heinzmann operate Heinz-Hope Farm with Aaron's parents Nelson and Bonnie in Carlyle, IL. Aaron and his family have bred and exhibited Holsteins and the local, state, and national levels. They have bred and developed several Jr and All-Illinois winners, as well as a handful of All-American nominees. Additionally, they row-crop 800 acres of corn, soybeans, and hay on their family farm. Aaron has judged several local and state shows in Michigan, Missouri, Nebraska, Louisiana, and Florida to name a few. Serving as the Associate Professor of Agriculture at Kaskaskia College for nearly two decades, Aaron has developed a dynamic and successful program. He coaches the KC Dairy Judging team that has won 12 national contests with over 25 All-American Dairy Judges. Aaron enjoys working with youth and is excited about the future leaders of our industry.
