Bryce Windecker is a 2020 and a 2022 graduate of SUNY Cobleskill and Cornell University, respectively. He grew up on his family's registered Holstein Dairy in Schuyler, NY- 15 minutes east of Utica called Windex Farms. From a young age, Bryce's passion has always been registered dairy cattle. From reading Horace Backus novels to sitting alongside Dava Rama rattling off pedigrees, to say he likes the industry is an understatement.
