Daniel's interest in Holstein started when he was young. As a «clipping man» of animals, he participated in several shows both in Canada and internationally before joining his parents on the family farm.

Now, Daniel with his wife Isabelle Dubois owns the farm since 2010. Deeply passionate about exhibitions, his daily goal is to raise exceptional animals that could compete in the most renowned competitions like Madison WDE, Toronto RWF & Quebec Supreme Holstein Show.

Daniel have been a judge since 2013. This experience allowed him to develop his personal confidence, travel a lot and meet exhibitors as well as breeders of high level both in Canada and in different countries

Judging different races is certainly a very important tool to enhance his passion.
