Top five most significant judging experiences:

- St Lawrence county fair, 2 days, over 200 cattle, selected Supreme Champion (All breeds)
- Wyoming county fair, good selection of all breeds, selected Ayrshire for Supreme Champion
- Schoharie county fair, youth were excellent and fun to work with
- Broome county fair, excellent people/breeders to work with
- Montgomery county fair, great representation of Holsteins

John Scoville grew up in Lewis County, northern NY showing registered Holsteins. His love for registered cattle transitioned to working with many prominent show strings such as: Greenlea, Windy Knoll View, Arethusia, Cedar Lane and Keystone Farms. He started judging in 2017 and has done many county fairs represented by all breeds across NY. John has since started his own herd with wife Molly and son Augustus, Maiden-Kine Registered Cattle. John also owns his own carpentry business, SJS Builders, remodeling many homes across northern NY.
