Murray Polson is a sixth-generation dairy farmer from Oxley Island NSW Australia. He milks 350 Registered Holsteins and a Jerseys. He owns and operates Oxley Vale/Mario Park Holstein on his family farm. The farm now has grown to featuring 600 acres of alluvial river flats that house roughly around 700 head of registered Cattle. Murray since a young age has had a passion for good cows and cow families. Murray's passion was fostered by his parents Doug & Zandria Polson of Oxley Vale Holsteins. Murray has 4 very enthusiastic children, Ruby, Lochie, Isabella and Hugh that are very keen on farming and have had great success showing at local and national levels. Murray has judged in all states of Australia and Judged in New Zealand 6 times. A highlight for Murray was judging the National Holstein show in New Zealand in 2015, as well as judging at every Royal show in Australia. Murray has also served on the Holstein Australia AA committee for 5 years and the national judges panel selection committee. Murray has also run many judging schools from his family farm in Oxley Island. Murray is a co-owner of the current All breeds national Intermediate Champion from IDW Eclipse Perennial Princess VG87, also having bred the highest living starbrood cow in Australia, Mario Park Goldwyn Alicia EX93 21 *. She was also Holstein Australia cow of the year 2018, Murray has also bred & owned 7 National champions, over 25 All Australian nominations and 5 unanimous All Australian champions. A real highlight was in 2019 at IDW breeding & owning 5 national class winners and 2 champions and breeding & owning the best uddered cow of the Holstein Show.
