Top five most significant judging experiences:

- Interacting with the youth at cow camp and helping them with their showing skills
- Judging my first fair at Harrison Arkansas
- Being able to judge my home town fair for the first time
- People coming up and asking for advice after the show
- The handshakes and thank yous from the youth after the show

Ryan Bilyeu grew up in Ozark, Missouri. In 2011 he graduated from Ozark High School where he was active in the Ozark FFA Chapter. He was a member of the State Qualifying Dairy and Livestock Judging teams. After high school, Ryan attended College of the Ozarks majoring in Agronomy and Agricultural Business. Ryan also minored in Animal Science. As a student at College of the Ozarks, he worked on the campus dairy. After Graduation, he was hired as the Manager of the College of the Ozarks dairy. Ryan has currently overseen the dairy for 7 years. His responsibilities are educating the students, genetics, and herd health. In 2022, Ryan attended the Holstein USA Judging Conference in Stillwater, Oklahoma. Ryan has judged several shows in the Missouri and Arkansas region. He would like to thank his wife Keysha, Daughter Heidi, and Son Hayes for supporting his judging endeavors.
