Terri Packard operates Kueffner Holsteins and South Mountain Jerseys with her husband, Ernest Kueffner, in Boonsboro, Maryland. Together they breed, develop and market a select group of deep-pedigreed Holsteins and Jerseys that compete in show rings and highlight sale arenas across North America. Ashlyn, Tobi, Veronica, Apple, Chassity, Comet, Season, Talent Barbara, Dezi, Cosmo, Dixie, Radiant, Gold Barbara and Camilla are some of the high-focus cows they owned, alone or in partnership, over the past 27 years. The couple has owned or managed over 200 All-American and All-Canadian nominations and exhibited numerous Supreme Champions at World Dairy Expo, Royal Winter Fair, PA All-American and Maryland State Fair. They managed Arethusa Farm for 10 years, building the herd from a small hobby farm to national prominence in both the Holstein and Jersey breeds.

Packard has placed State Shows and State Fairs in sixteen US states, officiated twice at Eastern States Exposition and served as official judge for the 2020 National Jersey Jug Futurity. Her international experience includes the Red & White and Jersey Shows at the 2022 Borderway UK Dairy Expo and the 2023 Ontario Spring Discovery Jersey Show.

Packard will officiate at the 2024 Pa All-American Dairy Show, judging the Premier National Junior R&W Show and Open Jersey Show. In the past 3 years she also judged Jerseys at New York Spring Show, Northeast All-Breeds Spring Show, Illinois and Minnesota State Fairs and Wisconsin Summer Championship Show. Packard is also on the 2024 Brown Swiss Approved Judges List.
